Introduction

The results of the survey on foreign private investment in Nigeria in 2003 which was conducted by the Central Bank of Nigeria in 2004 are presented in this report. The survey covered 230 establishments that are either fully foreign owned or are in partnership with Nigerians/Nigerian Agencies or enterprises doing business in Nigeria. A response rate of 53.9 percent was achieved as questionnaires were retrieved from 124 companies. Statistical adjustments were made for the non-respondents. The analyses of the survey returns are presented in eight parts. In Part I, the flows of foreign investment by regions of origin, components and sectoral distributions are discussed. The cumulative and net foreign investments are analyzed in Parts II and Part III, respectively. Part IV focuses on foreign investment in the Manufacturing and Processing sub-sector by industries and by regions. The cost and book values of the fixed assets of the establishments are examined in Part V, while the cumulative and current reserves for depreciation of these assets are presented in Part VI. The ownership structure and equity of the companies are presented in Part VII, while Part VIII summarizes the report.

PART I

FLOW OF FOREIGN PRIVATE INVESTMENT

The total net flow of foreign private investment in Nigeria in 2003 was boosted by 59.1 per cent increase from the level attained the previous year. A structural look at the ₦13, 056.1 million recorded in 2003 by region or country of origin shows that companies from United Kingdom maintained a dominant share, accounting for 46.3 per cent or ₦6, 045.5 million, although this represents a decline from the 49.1 per cent actualized in 2002. The country recorded net inflows from companies from all the countries/regions under classification with the ones from United States of America and Asia improving significantly to record inflows of ₦2, 918.6 million and ₦ 915.8 million or 22.4 and 7.5 per cent of the total respectively. Similarly, net inflows through companies from Western Europe (Excluding UK) and Others(Unspecified) increased by 66.2 and 47.7 per cent, from ₦1,300.3 million and N687.0 million to ₦2,161.2 million and ₦ 1,015.0 million, or representing 16.5 and 7.7 per cent of the total respectively (Table 1).

Components of Net Flow

Paid up capital plus reserves comprising Unremitted Profits and Changes in Foreign Share Capital accounted for 76.3 per cent of net capital flow, while other liabilities consisting of Trade and Suppliers' Credit, Other Foreign Liabilities and Liabilities to the Head Office accounted for the remaining 23.7 per cent. The level of Unremitted Profit as a component of net capital flow rose to ₦8,699.3 million or 66.6 per cent in the period under review (Table 2). The bulk of this investment component, amounting to ₦5,594.0 million or 64.3 per cent of the total is accounted for by companies of United Kingdom origin. Notably, the level of Unremitted Profit by companies from the various regions increased marginally from the levels in 2002. The changes in foreign share capital increased from ₦776.5 million in 2002 to register a higher inflow of ₦1,266.1 million or 9.6 per cent of aggregate net flow with the bulk coming from companies of Western Europe (excluding UK). The trade and suppliers' credit, other foreign liabilities and liabilities to head office components of net flow increased, to ₦ 1,461.5 million, ₦1,233.2 million and ₦396.4 million or 11.9, 9.4 and 3.0 per cent respectively in 2003. Companies of USA origin accounted for the bulk of inflow through Trade and Suppliers' Credit and Other Liabilities to the Head Office components recording inflows of ₦1,350.7 million and ₦1,206.3 million respectively.

Annual Flow Of Foreign Private Capital.

The flow of foreign private capital into seven economic sectors/sub-sectors, namely: Mining and Quarrying, Manufacturing and Processing, Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, Transport and Communication, Building and Construction, Trading and Business Services as well as miscellaneous activities were as follows:

The Manufacturing and Processing sector recorded the largest net inflow of ₦3,642.9 million or 44.4 per cent of total net inflow. This was largely contributed by Unremitted Profit from companies of UK origin amounting to ₦2,204.9 million (26.9 per cent of total). The Miscellaneous economic activities sector recorded the second largest net inflow of ₦2,214.8 million or 27 per cent, with the bulk of the inflow (₦1,482.1 million or 18.1 per cent), also through Unremitted Profits by companies of UK origin. The Trading and Business Services sector recorded a net inflow of ₦1,350.6 million or 16.5 per cent out of which ₦696.4 million was through trade and suppliers' credit by companies of United States of America. A net inflow of ₦815.3 million recorded in the Transport and Communication sector was traceable to companies of Western Europe (excluding UK) largely through change in foreign share capital and trade and suppliers' credit from companies of United States origin. A net inflow of ₦110.5 million recorded in the Building and Construction sector was largely attributed to companies of Western Europe (excluding UK) through Unremitted Profits and Other Foreign Liabilities. Mining and Quarrying and Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries sectors recorded net inflows of ₦72.8 million and ₦0.014 million respectively (Table 3).

PART II

CUMULATIVE FOREIGN INVESTMENT

Cumulative foreign investment derived from Tables 2 and 3 is further analyzed under two headings. These are: Paid-Up Capital plus Reserves (comprising Unremitted Profits and Change in Foreign Share Capital) and Other Liabilities (comprising Trade and Suppliers' Credit, Other Foreign Liabilities and Liabilities to Head Office).

Regional Aggregates

The cumulative foreign private investment in Nigeria rose by 4.7 per cent over the preceding year's level to register ₦174, 450.3 million in 2003 (Table 4). Companies from Western Europe (excluding UK) maintained their lead in terms of shares of percentage distribution of total, which however, declined further to 50.6 per cent in 2003 from 52.5 and 51.8 per cent in 2001 and 2002 respectively. The shares of companies from Others (unspecified) increased marginally from 10.3 per cent in 2002 to 10.5 per cent, while that of companies of United States and Asian countries increased from 13.5 and 2.3 per cent in 2002 to 14.5 and 2.8 per cent, respectively, in 2003. The proportion of investment from UK dropped marginally to 21.6 per cent of the total, a slight decrease of 0.5 percentage point from 2002. Aggregate paid-up capital plus reserves rose by 12.3 percent to ₦92, 172.1 million or 52.8 per cent of total, while other liabilities also increased slightly to ₦87, 427.9 million or 50.1 per cent of total in 2003. Companies of Western Europe (excluding UK) origin accounted for 39.2 and 59.7 per cent of aggregate paid up capital plus reserves and other liabilities groupings, respectively in 2003. The level of paid-up capital plus reserves and other liabilities of establishments of the UK origin accounted for the second largest share of ₦28,159.6 million and ₦14, 728.0 million, respectively, representing 30.6 and 16.8 per cent of the total in each category (Table 4).

Sectoral Aggregate

The cumulative levels of foreign investment in 2003, was obtained through the addition of the net positions in the review period for each of the major categories of paid-up capital plus reserves and other liabilities to the stock level of 2002. Analysis of the data showed that: Mining and Quarrying, Manufacturing and processing and Miscellaneous economic activities sectors registered the largest percentage distribution of cumulative foreign investment of 34.6, 25.6 and 27.5 respectively in 2003. The cumulative level of investment in Manufacturing and Processing, Transport and Communication and Other miscellaneous economic activities sectors/sub-sectors, increased by 14.4, 66.5 and 7.8 percentage points respectively in 2002, over the preceding year's levels. The significant increase in the Transport and Communications sector was attributed to an increase of 384 per cent in Paid up Capital plus reserves and a 72.5 per cent increase in other liabilities. Of the total of ₦178, 478.6 million for cumulative foreign private investment, the share of Building and Construction, and Trading and Business Services sectors/sub-sectors registered 2.5, and 8.1 per cent in 2003 while that of Mining and Quarrying declined from 37.0 per cent in 2002 to 34.6 per cent in the review period. Notably, the share of cumulative investment in Transport and Communication increased further to 1.6 per cent in 2003, from the 1.0 per cent of the previous year and away from the 0.5 per cent it recorded persistently for years before then (Table 5).

Maturity Pattern Of Other Liabilities

The level of total liabilities for overseas concerns by foreign companies operating in Nigeria was ₦85,126.1 million in 2003, representing a decrease of 0.7 per cent over the level in 2002 (Table 6). Liabilities up to one year from trade creditors are regarded as short-term or current liabilities, while those exceeding one year, comprising other liabilities and liabilities to head offices are regarded as long-term liabilities. The slight change in the level of cumulative liabilities was traceable to the 0.9 per cent decrease in net inflow recorded through long-term liabilities from ₦126,405.3million in 2002 to ₦125,237.6 million in 2003, and reduced net out payments on current liabilities from ₦40,718.2 million to ₦40,111.6 million. On regional basis foreign liabilities of companies of United Kingdom, United States of America and Western Europe (excluding UK) rose from ₦16,224.3, ₦21,428.0 and ₦50,949.0 million in 2002 to ₦16,279.3, ₦22,776.6, ₦51,252.4 million representing an increase of 0.3, 6.3 and 0.6 per cent respectively in 2003. However, foreign liabilities of companies of Asian origin declined from ₦1,994.9 million in 2002 to ₦1,252.4 million in the review period. However, companies of other (unspecified) origin registered an increase in net out payment from ₦4,909.0 million in 2002 to ₦6,434.6 million in the review period. The total cumulative liabilities of Mining and Quarrying, Manufacturing and processing, Trading and Business Services and Miscellaneous economic activities sector increased slightly, while that of Building and Construction, Transport and Communication decreased. Agriculture, Forestry and fishing sector retained its value in 2003.

PART III

NET INVESTMENT

Sectoral and Regional Distribution

A net inflow of ₦13, 110.0 million of foreign investment into the country in 2003 came mainly through paid-up capital plus reserves which accounted for 77.1 per cent of total inflow. The country recorded a general increase in investment from the various countries/regions except in the Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries sector. Companies from United States of America origin recorded a high increase in net inflow while those of United Kingdom (UK) origin and Western Europe (excluding UK) recorded an increased net inflow of 50.1 and 66.3 per cent respectively. Asian companies net inflow increased from ₦430.2 million in 2002 to an inflow of ₦988.1 million in 2003 (Table 7). ### Maturity Pattern of Other Liabilities (Net)

Other liabilities recorded a net inflow of ₦2,970.7 million in 2003 (Table 7). This is further broken down into current and long term liabilities (Table 8). Current liability refers to indebtedness of one-year maturity or less, while a long-term liability relates to those advances exceeding a year. The result of the survey showed that, long term liabilities (indebtedness) of foreign companies in Nigeria during the period under review stood at ₦1,627.5 million compared with ₦268.6 million and ₦302.0 million in 2001 and 2002 respectively. However, a substantial inflow of ₦1,364.8 million was recorded in 2003 for current liabilities. On regional basis, the analyses showed that the companies from United States of America accounted for the bulk of the total liabilities as they contributed 89.1 per cent of the total liabilities in the review period, while Asian companies recorded the bulk of the net out payments. However, the out payment by the Asian firms was mainly in the Manufacturing and Processing sub-sector. Companies of USA origin engaging in Manufacturing and Processing and miscellaneous economic activities of companies of Western Europe (excluding UK) also accounted for a substantial part of the net out payments in current liabilities (Table 8).

PART IV

FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN THE MANUFACTURING AND PROCESSING SUB-SECTOR

The cumulative foreign private investment in the Manufacturing and processing sub-sector is dis-aggregated into 28 individual groups shown in Table 9 based on the international standard of industrial classification (ISIC). Analysis of the groups is carried out under two investment components: paid up capital plus reserves and other liabilities. The cumulative foreign investment level in the Manufacturing and Processing sub-sector increased by 14.8 per cent from ₦56,365.3 million in 2002 to ₦64,706.9 million in 2003. The proportion of paid-up capital plus reserves in total investment in the sector increased marginally from 76.9 percent in 2002 to 76.1 per cent in 2003. The increase in aggregate investment in this sector was due largely to developments in 24 industrial groupings. The major contributors to the development in the sub-sector in terms of flow of foreign investment includes food product, beverages, textiles, other chemical product, pottery/earthen wares and transport equipment products accounting for 14.8, 18.7, 10.4, 8.4, 8.4 and 2.6 per cent respectively. However, non-ferrous metals recorded a declined level of investment of ₦211.6 million with an out payment of ₦205.3 million as other liabilities. The petroleum refineries, plastic products, other chemical products and rubber products groups recorded the same level of investment as in the previous year. The cumulative investment level in the textile group and food products increased by 82 and 72 per cent from ₦4,233.9 million and ₦6,691.9 million in 2002 to ₦5,504.1 million and ₦8,699.4 million in 2003 respectively. The increase in net inflow resulted mostly from the increase in paid-up capital plus reserves although other liabilities from companies in the region remained increased slightly. Capital inflow through paid-up capital plus reserves in other manufacturing industries remained ₦100.1 million, representing 3.4 per cent of the total investment from the region in 2003 (Table 11). The companies of US origin recorded a net inflow of ₦18.6 million in 2003 as against an outflow of ₦35.3 million registered in the previous year through the printing and publishing industry. Paid-up capital plus reserves registered increased outflows (Table 12). The sectoral analysis showed that fixed assets in the Mining and Quarrying, Manufacturing and Processing, Transport and Communications sub-sectors increased from ₦205, ₦6,577.8 and ₦171.9 million in 2002 to ₦286.9, ₦9,479.7 and ₦240.7 million in the review period, representing increases of about 50 per cent, respectively. However, Building and Construction sub-sector, reduced its negative book value (outpayments) from ₦46.7 million to a positive value of ₦28.0 million in the review period (Table 28).

PART VI

RESERVES FOR DEPRECIATION

Cumulative reserves for depreciation increased by 11.5 percent from ₦89,830.4 million in 2002 to ₦100,149.3 million. The increase was shared by all the components of fixed assets in the period under review. Machinery and equipment accounted for the largest share of 41.9 per cent of the total. The ratio of cumulative reserves for depreciation to the value of fixed assets at cost, increased from 30.0 per cent in 2002 to 31.3 per cent in 2003. A sectoral analysis revealed increase in cumulative depreciation in all the sectors. Mining and Quarrying and Manufacturing and processing sectors accounted for 42.2 and 36.4 per cent of the total cumulative depreciation respectively (Table 29).

A. Current Reserves for Depreciation

The amount of current reserves for depreciation of fixed assets increased slightly from ₦1,467.3 million in 2002 to ₦2,006.9 million in 2003. All the components of fixed assets accounted for the increase. Sectoral analysis showed that the Manufacturing and Processing sub-sector recorded the largest reserves for depreciation of ₦1,560.1 million, representing 77.7 per cent of the total. All the sectors and sub-sectors of the economy recorded increases in current reserves for depreciation, compared with the preceding year's level (Table 30).

B. Current Depreciation as Percentage of Fixed Assets (At Cost)

The proportion of current reserves for depreciation to the value (at cost) of fixed assets increased from 16.5 per cent in 2002 to 22.1 per cent. Building and Construction sub-sector recorded a decline in its proportion. A dis-aggregation by components of assets, revealed that the proportions stood at 36.2, 24.9, 12.7, and 25.8 per cent for real estate, machinery and equipment, furniture and fixtures, and motor vehicles respectively. (Table 31).

OWNERSHIP STRUCTURE AND EQUITY

A. Cumulative Share Capital

The survey revealed that the cumulative paid-up capital (excluding reserves or unremitted profits) in all foreign-owned or joint venture companies operating in Nigeria increased by 0.5 percentage point from ₦77,720.1 million in 2002 to ₦37,841.2 million in 2003. Common stock held both locally and by overseas investors amounted to ₦23,650.7 million in 2002 compared with ₦23,650.7 in 2002 (Table 32). Aggregate foreign share capital was valued at ₦37,865.7 million in 2003, representing 30.5 per cent of the total share capital, as against ₦23,668.6 million of the total share capital in 2002. The observed increase in foreign share capital was due to fresh capital injected into various sectors of the economy. The bulk of the shares were in Manufacturing and Processing, Mining and Quarrying and miscellaneous economic activities. The share of non-resident shareholders in total foreign share capital remained at 7 per cent, its level since 1999.

B. Component of Changes in Foreign Share Capital

A further dis-aggregation of changes in foreign share capital revealed that expatriates' equity increased by 48.6 per cent to ₦33.3 million in 2003, from ₦22.4 million in 2002. The increase was attributed to the increase in parent/affiliated investors from ₦21.3 million in 2002 to ₦33.3 million in the review period. Sectoral analysis showed that capital was leaked out from the Manufacturing and Processing, Mining and Quarrying, Building and Construction and miscellaneous economic activities sub-sectors. Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, and Trading and Business Services sub-sectors however, retained their zero returns, while a new capital amounting to ₦13.5 million was injected into the Transport and Communications sub-sector (Table 33).

PART VIII

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION

The net flow of foreign private investment in Nigeria in 2003 was ₦13,056.1 million. The survey data showed that unremitted profit mainly through companies of United Kingdom origin accounted for the bulk of the inflow. The netflow of companies in the region rose to ₦6,045.5 million from a figure of ₦4027.3 million recorded in 2003. Total investment also increased for companies of other unspecified origin from ₦687 million to ₦1015.0 million in the review period. The survey further revealed that the level of cumulative foreign private investment in the year 2003 was ₦174,456.3 million, indicating an increase of 4.5 percent over the level in 2002. The increase was reflected mainly in the contribution of companies of United Kingdom origin and others (unspecified), whose shares rose from 22.1 and 10.3 per cent in 2002 to 22.1 and 10.5 per cent, respectively, in the review period. However, companies from Western Europe (excluding UK) maintained their lead, accounting for 50.6 per cent of the cumulative investment during the year 2003. Activities of foreign investors in Manufacturing and Processing and Miscellaneous economic activities sectors intensified during the period. The share of aggregate investment in these sectors increased from 24 and 27.3 per cent in 2002 to 25.6 and 27.5 per cent, respectively, in 2003. The cumulative foreign debt profile of foreign establishments operating in Nigeria declined from ₦84,687.0 million from ₦84,238.1 million in 2003 due to decreased long current term liabilities. Net investment in fixed asset (at cost) in 2003 was ₦13,110.0 million. The value of total stock of fixed assets at cost, increased by 6.2 per cent to ₦320,151.2 million, while the book value increased by 30.4 per cent to ₦399,407.9 million in 2002. The result of the survey showed that cumulative reserves for depreciation rose from ₦89,830.4 million in 2002 to ₦100,149.3 million in 2003. Similarly, the cumulative paid-up capital (excluding reserves or unremitted profits) in all foreign-owned or joint venture companies operating in Nigeria increased by 20.0 per cent from ₦77,720.1 million in 2002 to ₦124,348.2 million in 2003.
